Good afternoon Kim,

I hope you are staying as dry as possible with all this rain. If you plan on holding up indoors over the weekend, I thought I'd share our proposed contract revision for you to read at your leisure. John and I will be ready to quickly discuss any items you may come across and make adjustments as soon as possible.

You may notice some date fields are left blank and this is due to our corporate approval procedure for ordering carts with new agreements. Once we finalize the remainder of the agreement – we will share it internally and then we will be able provide the anticipated delivery date of the carts based on our suppliers turnaround.

I hope you have a blessed weekend – look forward to hearing from you soon.
